

CITY OF TREES

MAPPING TREES IN URBAN TOPOGRAPHIES FROM ANCIENT TO MODERN

International Symposium, 21 November 2022, Villa Lante al Gianicolo

INSTITUTUM
ROMANUM
FINLANDIAE

10.30 Registration & Coffee

11.00 Ria Berg (Institutum Romanum Finlandiae): “Introduction – Living with Trees in Antiquity”

11.30 Andrew Fox (Institute of Classical Studies, School of Advanced Study; University of Reading): “Natural Monuments: The Figs of the Forum”

12.00 Annalisa Marzano (University of Bologna): “Pointing out Trees in the Garden: Trees and the Elite’s Self-Representation in Ancient Rome”

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch break

13.30 Mattia Corso (University of Verona): “The Trees of the Madonna. Trees and Woods as Sites of Divine Presence in Early Modern Italy”

14.00 Marika Räsänen (University of Turku): “Veneration of Trees in the Late Medieval and Early Modern Dominican Culture”

14.30 Juhana Heikonen (University of Helsinki): “Trees in the Context of 19th Century Urban Ideology”

15.00 Coffee break

15.30 Tiina Männistö-Funk (University of Turku): “Where have all the trees gone? Trees in modernist planning and urban activism in Finland”

16.00 Discussion

16.30 Toast & planting of a tree in the garden of Villa Lante

Key note:

17.00 Bettina Bergmann (Mount Holyoke College): “The Work of Trees and their Images in Roman Art”

Organizers:

Ria Berg, Institutum Romanum Finlandiae
Marika Räsänen, Academy of Finland/
University of Turku

REGISTER HERE TO PARTICIPATE:
irfrome.org/21-11-international-seminar-city-of-trees/

